Ditch That Textbook Matt Miller,2015-04-13 Textbooks are symbols of centuries-old education. They're often outdated as soon as they hit students' desks. Acting by the textbook implies compliance and a lack of creativity. It's time to ditch those textbooks--and those textbook assumptions about learning In Ditch That Textbook, teacher and blogger Matt Miller encourages educators to throw out meaningless, pedestrian teaching and learning practices. He empowers them to evolve and improve on old, standard, teaching methods. Ditch That Textbook is a support system, toolbox, and manifesto to help educators free their teaching and revolutionize their classrooms.

Storyboard Notebook 16 Simple Storyboards,2020-01-30 What is storyboarding? Storyboarding is about taking a script or a concept and turning it into a visual story using storyboards. You need to be able to draw well enough to allow yourself or your production team to envision and develop your ideas, test how they will work, and highlight any potential obstacles with the structure or layout of the story before you begin production. Therefore you need to practice. Open a storyboard blank template and sketch your ideas. If they don't work or if you come up with a better idea, rub them out and scetch out new ones. The more you understand about how to make your production visually interesting in your sketches the better your end product will be. Add notes about what's going on in your images. Refer to the front cover to see what you might like to record in the spaces above and below each panel, but I have left the spaces blank inside the storyboard book because you will want to use different criteria according to each project, or what stage you are up to in each project. There is an index at the front of your storyboard movie maker to bookmark whatever suits your project best. (Initial thumbnails, first draft, new chapters, new projects, particularly good ideas etc.) By the end of the storyboarding notebook you will be able to go through your storyboard writing examples and track your progress and you will have a record of what works best for you. Do more of what worked best. I hope you become an awesome storyboarder!: ) Paperback - 130 pages - 8.5 x 11

Creating Holistic Technology- Enhanced Learning Experiences Lee Yong TAY, Cher Ping LIM, 2013-02-11
Creating Holistic Technology-Enhanced Learning Experiences: Tales of a Future School in Singapore Editors: Lee Yong TAY & Cher Ping LIM
The global level of economic, ecological, social, political and cultural integration across nation states and the rapid advancement of technology have brought about transformations that are part of globalisation. Our students are expected to be agents of change rather than passive observers of world events; and at the same time, to live together in an increasingly diverse and complex society and to reflect on and interpret fast changing information. In such a new world order, the holistic development of our students, namely in the cognitive, aesthetics, physical, social and moral, leadership and global domains, is pivotal. This edited book provides descriptive and interpretive accounts of how an elementary school in the FutureSchools@Singapore programme creates holistic technology-enhanced learning experiences for its students at the classroom and school levels. By documenting these accounts and linking them to student learning outcomes, the school will lead the way in providing possible models for the seamless and pervasive integration of information and communication technologies (ICT) into the curriculum for the holistic development of our students.
